

Tarrant county.—William Randall Gause, Fort Worth, Texas, was, born in Chester county, Pennsylvania; commenced the practice of law in Gentry county, Missouri, in 1857; served during the entire war in the First Missouri Brigade; moved to Mississippi, and from thence to Texas, in 1872, and settled in Fort Worth; elected to the House of the Sixteenth Legislature, as a Democrat, over three opponents, by a majority of 1134 votes.